A cartoon illustration depicting a interaction between a Native American woman and a Pilgrim man. The woman, on the left, is wearing a light-colored dress and a dark shawl. She is holding a large wooden platter filled with bread rolls and is gesturing towards it with her right hand. A speech bubble above her contains the text: "Try some of our delicious wholesome food". The Pilgrim man, on the right, is wearing a dark doublet, breeches, stockings, and a tall black hat. He has a white ruff around his neck and a sword at his waist. He is looking at the food with a skeptical expression and a speech bubble above him contains the text: "No thanks - we'd rather eat our own people!"
